

TIAT Receives 2010 Nikkei Superior Products and Services Awards Nihon Keizai Shimbun Award for Excellence

Tokyo International Air Terminal Corporation (TIAT) has been awarded the 2010 Nikkei Superior Products and Services Awards Nihon Keizai Shimbun Award for Excellence.

The awards are bestowed by Nikkei Incorporated each year on new products and services featured in either the Nihon Keizai Shimbun, Nikei Sangyo Shimbun, Nikkei MJ or Nikkei Veritas publications that demonstrate outstanding excellence. First bestowed in 1982, 2010 is the 29th year of the awards.

TIAT humbly accepts the award as recognition of its role as Greater Tokyo's new gateway to the world.

TIAT will continue to conduct its business and operations in a way which will provide a convenient, available airport to a wider section of users based on its corporate philosophy: As the gateway of Tokyo, we will endeavor to continue providing cutting edge terminal facilities and services to customers from across the world.

Further information (in Japanese):

2010 Nikkei Superior Products and Services Awards

<http://www.nikkei.co.jp/events/>

- Information is under the headings: 表彰事業⇒日経優秀製品・サービス賞